

GEOLOGIC TIME SCALE—WORD FIND & PUZZLE—ANSWER KEY

Complete the following sentences, then find and circle the answers in the Woolly Mammoth Puzzle.

1. In the Tellus Fossil Gallery, the hanging fish with the plated head is a Dunkleosteus.
2. The giant ground sloth is a “cousin” to the Ice Age character named Sid.
3. At the Tellus Science Museum, the predecessor of T. rex on display is Appalachiosaurus.
4. Tyrannosaurus rex name has its roots in Latin.
5. The skeletons on display are casts made from molds of the original bones. The sabertooth cat used to be known as a lion, but he is more closely related to a tiger.
6. An example of a trace fossil are prints.
7. Dromeosaurs were carnivores with sharp, pointed teeth and sickle-shaped claws. Since they hunted in groups they probably ran very fast.
8. Edmontasaurus was a hadrosaur which ate plants, making them herbivores. The hadrosaurs laid softball size eggs in nests which hatched similarly to chickens.
9. The nickname of Tellus’ triceratops is Spike. The word triceratops means three horns.
10. Apatosaurus is a long neck. It ate approximately 2000 pounds of leaves everyday.
11. Scientists tell us the Earth is 4.6 billion years old.